REP. ANDREW GARBARINO (R-NY)
CHAIRMAN, SUBCOMMITTEE ON CYBERSECURITY AND INFRASTRUCTURE PROTECTION
HOMELAND SECURITY COMMITTEE
U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

As a lifelong Long Islander, Andrew has dedicated his life to family and community. The proud son of a lawyer and small business owner and a teacher, Andrew went to Sayville High School where he participated in student government and worked at the local hardware store. As a man of faith, Andrew received his communion and confirmation at St. Lawrence Catholic Church, where he still attends Mass on Sundays. After high school graduation, Andrew went on to receive his BA in history and classical humanities from The George Washington University. Andrew then returned to Long Island where he received his Juris Doctorate from Hofstra University. Upon his graduation from law school, Andrew joined his father at their family law firm in downtown Sayville.

Andrew's love and appreciation for his family-oriented community on Long Island inspired him to run for a seat in the New York Assembly, where he served the 7th district for four terms. During his tenure in the Assembly, Andrew fought to increase state funding for Long Island school districts, protect our island's environment including the Great South Bay, oppose tax hikes, and support our local heroes in law enforcement.

A proud member of the Sayville Rotary Club and Knights of Columbus, Andrew has been a leader in his Long Island community following the Rotary Club's motto, "Service Above Self."

Andrew has represented New York's Second Congressional District in Congress since 2021 and fights every day for the hardworking people of Long Island. He serves on the House Financial Services Committee, the House Homeland Security Committee, and the House Ethics Committee.

ALEXANDRA S. GLICKMAN
AREA VICE CHAIRMAN
SENIOR MANAGING DIRECTOR-GLOBAL PRACTICE LEADER
GALLAGHER GLOBAL REAL ESTATE & HOSPITALITY SERVICES
ARTHUR J. GALLAGHER & CO.

Alex Glickman has 39 years of experience of representing virtually every asset class and ownership structure in the real estate industry. In 1997, she launched Marsh's Real Estate and Hospitality Practice and has led Gallagher's Practice since 2001. In 2018 Gallagher launched the Gallagher Global Alliance Real Estate and Hospitality Practice, the first Global Industry Practice for the firm and appointed Alex as the leader.

Alex has pioneered many real estate specific insurance products and services and speaks frequently on topics ranging from real estate centric insurance issues to Diversity and Inclusivity. She has been recognized by Risk & Insurance Magazine as a "Power Broker" (Real Estate category) for 11 of the past 12 years. Lloyd's named her Wholesale Broker of the Year in 2007. She was also presented the "Real Estate Industry Outstanding Achievement" award by the Los Angeles County Bar Association Real Estate Section in 2012. Real Estate Forum named her one of 50 Outstanding Women in 2012, 2013 and 2014. In 2019 she was recognized by both Intelligent Insurer (UK) and the Los Angeles Business Journal as one of the “Most Influential Insurance Brokers’. She is involved with a number of professional and community organizations.

Alex is a graduate of the University of California, Berkeley and completed Executive Education at USC’s School of Business Administration and UCLA’s John F. Anderson Graduate School of Management.

TAMMY HUTCHINSON
DIRECTOR, PRIVATE SECTOR ENGAGEMENT
DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY

Tammy Hutchinson has over 30 years of experience in the Intelligence Community. Throughout her career, she has held a broad range of leadership positions in intelligence integration, program management, risk analysis and threat assessment, and state, local, tribal, and private sector information sharing efforts.

Tammy joined the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) in November 2004. She currently serves as the Director, Private Sector Engagement, leading I&A’s efforts to facilitate intelligence and information sharing with the private sector through several public-private programs, partnerships, and engagements with corporate security leaders and community-based leaders to drive intelligence and information sharing and increase awareness on threats.

Tammy is the DHS Co-Chair of the FBI’s Domestic Security Alliance Council, a strategic partnership between the U.S. government and over 650 private sector companies to enhance collaboration and provide timely, effective information sharing on threats to U.S. private industry. Prior to this assignment, Tammy served as the Director of the Interagency Threat Assessment and Coordination Group housed within the National Counterterrorism Center. She provided key leadership in ensuring bi-directional information sharing between the Intelligence Community and state, local, tribal, and private sector organizations.

Tammy holds a Master of Computer Resources and Information Management degree; and is a graduate of the Naval Post Graduate School’s Executive Leaders Program, and the Foreign Service Institute’s National Security Executive Leaders Program. She is certified by the Office of Personnel Management as a Senior Executive Service Leader.

JASON OLIN
DIRECTOR OF GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS
MAJOR CITIES CHIEFS ASSOCIATION (MCCA)

Jason Olin is the Director of Government Affairs for the Major Cities Chiefs Association (MCCA). Jason is a Capitol Hill veteran, having served on the staff of the U.S. House of Representatives Committee on Homeland Security (CHS) for 5+ years. He began as a Staff Assistant with CHS and quickly worked his way up the role of Professional Staff Member/Investigator. A subject matter expert on a broad range of homeland and national security issues, Jason held several different positions within CHS and served on the staffs of the Oversight and Management Subcommittee, the Transportation and Protective Security Subcommittee, and the Full Committee’s National Security Team.

Jason is recognized for his strong background in national and homeland security policy making, having played a key role in multiple significant Congressional investigations and oversight initiatives.

He has also written numerous pieces of legislation that were signed into law. Most notably, Jason was the lead staffer for CHS' Task Force on Denying Terrorists Entry to the United States, which produced a comprehensive report and accompanying legislation designed to address existing vulnerabilities in U.S. government counterterrorism programs.

Most recently, Jason served a Senior Advisor at a small consulting firm focused on homeland security, aviation security, law enforcement and defense. In this role, he assisted clients with navigating the legislative, appropriations, and federal procurement processes.

A native of New York, Jason graduated summa cum laude, with special honors, from The George Washington University's Elliott School of International Affairs, where he was a member of the University Honors Program.
