The Real Estate Roundtable

Representative Jake Auchincloss (D-MA)
Committee: Energy and Commerce
Subcommittees: Energy; Environment; Health

Representative Jake Auchincloss represents Massachusetts' 4th Congressional District. First elected in 2020, he is serving his third term in the House.

Rep. Auchincloss serves on the House Energy and Commerce Committee and its Subcommittees on Energy, Environment and Health. The committee's work includes energy policy, environmental protection, health care, technology and telecommunications.

Before entering Congress, Rep. Auchincloss served on the Newton City Council from 2016 to 2020, where he chaired the Public Safety and Transportation Committee and served on the Land Use Committee. His local government work included housing, transportation, public safety and constituent services.

A Marine Corps veteran, Rep. Auchincloss served on active duty from 2010 to 2015. He commanded infantry in Afghanistan and led a reconnaissance mission in Panama, including a combined training mission with Colombian Special Forces.

Rep. Auchincloss also worked on housing and transportation at Liberty Mutual's innovation lab. Earlier in his business career, he worked in cybersecurity and led a startup competition at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Born and raised in Newton, Rep. Auchincloss attended the city's public schools before graduating from Harvard College and earning an M.B.A. at MIT.

(A.B., Harvard University, 2010; M.B.A., Massachusetts Institute of Technology, 2016)

The Real Estate Roundtable

Representative Mike Bost (R-IL)
Chairman, House Committee on Veterans' Affairs
House Committees on Transportation and Infrastructure and Agriculture

Representative Mike Bost represents Illinois' 12th Congressional District, which covers 34 counties in southern Illinois. He has served in the U.S. House of Representatives since 2015 and chairs the House Committee on Veterans' Affairs.

As chairman, Rep. Bost helped lead passage of the VA Home Loan Program Reform Act, which became law in July 2025. The law established a partial claim program to help eligible veterans who have fallen behind on their VA mortgages avoid foreclosure. In 2026, he joined colleagues in introducing the VA Home Loan Affordability Act to streamline the homebuying process for veterans and their families.

Rep. Bost also serves on the House Transportation and Infrastructure and Agriculture Committees. His transportation assignments include highways and transit, railroads and pipelines, and water resources. He co-chairs the Congressional Fire Services Caucus.

Before coming to Congress, Rep. Bost served two decades in the Illinois House of Representatives, where he chaired the House Republican Caucus. A native of Murphysboro, he served in the U.S. Marine Corps from 1979 to 1982 and was honorably discharged as a corporal. He later worked in his family's trucking business and served as a firefighter in Murphysboro.

(University of Illinois Certified Firefighter II Academy, 1993)

The Real Estate Roundtable

Representative Mike Flood (R-NE)
Chair, Housing and Insurance Subcommittee
House Financial Services Committee

Representative Mike Flood is serving his third term representing Nebraska's 1st Congressional District. He currently serves on the House Financial Services Committee, where he is also Chairman of the Housing and Insurance Subcommittee.

In addition to his chairmanship, Rep. Flood is a member of the Financial Institutions Subcommittee and the Task Force on Monetary Policy, Treasury Market Resilience, and Economic Prosperity. He also serves as Chair of the Republican Main Street Caucus and is a member of the House Republican Policy Committee.

Rep. Flood has long been active in Northeast Nebraska economic development and community efforts. He served as the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Children's Scholarship Fund, advancing its mission to open the doors of educational opportunity for families with financial need. He has also previously served on the Board of Directors for Invest Nebraska, which is committed to growing Nebraska's economy by assisting entrepreneurs and investing capital in companies with growth potential.

Currently, Rep. Flood is a member of the U.S. Strategic Command Consultation Committee and a councilor for the Aksarben Foundation.

In 2005, Mike was elected to represent his hometown and surrounding Madison County in the Nebraska Legislature. In 2007, his colleagues elected him the youngest Speaker of the Legislature in Nebraska history. He served in the state legislature until 2013, and returned in 2020, before he was elected to Congress in 2022.

(BA University of Notre Dame, 1997; JD University of Nebraska, 2001)

The Real Estate Roundtable

Representative Andrew Garbarino (R-NY)
Chairman, House Committee on Homeland Security
House Committees on Financial Services and Ethics

Representative Andrew Garbarino represents New York's 2nd Congressional District, which includes communities along Long Island's South Shore. First elected to Congress in 2020, he became chairman of the House Committee on Homeland Security in July 2025. He previously chaired the Subcommittee on Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Protection.

As chairman, Rep. Garbarino introduced the WIMWIG Act (H.R. 5079), which would reauthorize the Cybersecurity Information Sharing Act of 2015 for 10 years. The Real Estate Roundtable supports the bill, which would preserve voluntary sharing of cyber threat information between the federal government and the private sector.

On the House Financial Services Committee, Rep. Garbarino is vice chairman of the Subcommittee on Capital Markets and serves on the Subcommittees on Housing and Insurance and Oversight and Investigations. He also co-chairs the Congressional SALT Caucus.

Before joining Congress, Rep. Garbarino served four terms in the New York State Assembly and practiced law in Sayville. He graduated from George Washington University and earned his law degree from Hofstra University.

The Real Estate Roundtable

Representative Tim Kennedy (D-NY)
Ranking Member, Emergency Management and Technology Subcommittee
Committees: Homeland Security; Veterans' Affairs

Representative Tim Kennedy represents New York's 26th Congressional District, including Buffalo and Niagara Falls. He was first elected to the House in a special election on April 30, 2024.

Rep. Kennedy serves on the House Homeland Security Committee, where he is Ranking Member of the Subcommittee on Emergency Management and Technology and a member of the Subcommittee on Transportation and Maritime Security. He also serves on the House Veterans' Affairs Committee and its Subcommittees on Economic Opportunity and Oversight and Investigations.

As Co-Chair of the bipartisan Northern Border Caucus, Rep. Kennedy works on border management, travel and commerce, and cooperation with Canada. His work also includes efforts to improve federal disaster assistance for communities affected by severe winter weather and strengthen services for veterans.

Before joining Congress, Rep. Kennedy served in the New York State Senate, where he chaired the Transportation Committee. He helped secure investments in public transportation, including Buffalo's Metro Rail, and worked on road safety, infrastructure and regional economic development.

A lifelong Western New Yorker, Rep. Kennedy worked as an occupational therapist for 11 years, serving geriatric and pediatric patients before entering Congress.

(BA, MS, D'Youville University)

The Real Estate Roundtable

Representative Bill Huizenga (R-MI)
Vice Chair, House Financial Services Committee
Committees: House Financial Services; Foreign Affairs

Representative Bill Huizenga has served as a U.S. representative since 2011 and currently represents Michigan's 4th Congressional District. Rep. Huizenga is a member of the influential House Financial Services Committee, where he serves Vice Chair, and also sits on the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

As House Financial Services Vice Chair, Rep. Huizenga's extensive experience across the committee's jurisdiction drives policy initiatives pertaining to economic growth and stabilization; domestic monetary policy and interest rates; the allocation of credit; and the structure and functioning of domestic financial institutions. Federal agencies under the oversight of the House Financial Services Committee include the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB), the Federal Reserve, the Department of Treasury, and the Government Sponsored Enterprises (Fannie Mae & Freddie Mac).

Rep. Huizenga is an original member of the Bipartisan Fiscal Forum (BFF), a group founded during the 118th Congress that is dedicated to sounding the alarm about our nation's unsustainable debt trajectory and working together to get control of our fiscal future. He serves as the Republican Co-Chair, working with the group's members to elevate the debt issue while providing members with opportunities to improve the fiscal policy debate in Congress.

Rep. Huizenga has previously served on each of the House Financial Services Subcommittees, including Housing, Community Development, and Insurance; Investor Protection, Entrepreneurship, and Capital Markets; and Monetary Policy and Trade. During the 118th Congress, Rep. Huizenga served as the Chairman of the Oversight and Investigations Subcommittee, where he oversaw all agencies, departments, programs, and matters within the Financial Services Committee's jurisdiction.

Prior to being elected to Congress, Rep. Huizenga served in the Michigan House of Representatives from 2003 to 2009.

Rep. Huizenga began his career as a realtor and entrepreneur. Today, he co-owns Huizenga Gravel Inc. located in Jenison, MI.

(BA, Calvin College)

The Real Estate Roundtable

Representative Darin LaHood (R-IL)
Chairman, NSA and Cyber Subcommittee (Intelligence)
Committees: Ways and Means; Intelligence; Select Committee on the Chinese Communist Party

Representative Darin LaHood represents Illinois' 16th Congressional District, which spans communities across central and northwestern Illinois. He was first sworn into the House in September 2015 after winning a special election.

Rep. LaHood serves on the House Ways and Means Committee, where he chairs the Subcommittee on Work and Welfare and serves on the Subcommittee on Trade. He also serves on the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, where he chairs the Subcommittee on the National Security Agency and Cyber, and on the House Select Committee on the Strategic Competition Between the United States and the Chinese Communist Party.

His congressional work spans tax policy, trade, workforce participation, intelligence oversight and national security. He co-chairs the bipartisan U.S.-China Working Group and the Digital Trade Caucus, among other congressional groups.

Before joining Congress, Rep. LaHood served four years in the Illinois State Senate. He spent more than nine years as a state and federal prosecutor, including service as an Assistant U.S. Attorney in Las Vegas from 2001 to 2006, where he was selected as Chief Terrorism Prosecutor.

A Peoria native, Rep. LaHood also practiced law at Miller, Hall & Triggs before his election to Congress.

(B.A., Loras College; J.D., John Marshall Law School)

The Real Estate Roundtable

Representative Linda T. Sánchez (D-CA)
House Ways and Means Committee
Ranking Member, House Ways and Means Subcommittee on Trade

Representative Linda T. Sánchez represents California's 38th Congressional District. First elected to Congress in 2002, she was the first Latina to serve on the House Ways and Means Committee and now serves as ranking member of its Trade Subcommittee. She also serves on the Health Subcommittee.

On Ways and Means, Rep. Sánchez has worked on tax policy, trade and retirement security. She has championed legislation to help small businesses offer retirement benefits and secured the transfer of a former tank farm site in Norwalk for local redevelopment.

Rep. Sánchez previously chaired the Congressional Hispanic Caucus and served as vice chair of the House Democratic Caucus and ranking member of the House Ethics Committee. She co-founded the Congressional Labor and Working Families Caucus.

Before entering Congress, Rep. Sánchez practiced labor law and served as executive secretary and treasurer of the Orange County AFL-CIO. She also worked on public works and prevailing wage compliance for the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers and the National Electrical Contractors Association.

(B.A., University of California, Berkeley, 199; J.D., UCLA School of Law, 1995)

The Real Estate Roundtable

Representative Pete Sessions (R-TX)
Chairman, Government Operations Subcommittee
Committees: Financial Services; Oversight and Government Reform

Representative Pete Sessions represents Texas' 17th Congressional District. He was first elected to Congress in 1996 and served in the House from 1997 to 2019 before returning in January 2021.

Rep. Sessions serves on the House Financial Services Committee and its Subcommittees on Capital Markets and National Security, Illicit Finance, and International Financial Institutions. On the House Committee on Oversight and Government Reform, he chairs the Subcommittee on Government Operations and also serves on the Subcommittee on Health Care and Financial Services.

His current caucus leadership roles include Chairman of the Military & Veteran Housing Caucus and Co-Chairman of the Delivering Outstanding Government Efficiency (DOGE) Caucus and Congressional Scouting Caucus.

Rep. Sessions previously chaired the House Rules Committee from 2013 to 2019 and the National Republican Congressional Committee from 2009 through 2012. His legislative work has included health care access for children with disabilities and efforts to counter illegal cross-border tunnels.

Before entering Congress, Rep. Sessions spent 16 years with Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, retiring as a District Manager. An Eagle Scout, he has also held leadership roles in scouting, disability assistance and conservation organizations and served on the Board of Trustees of Southwestern University.

(B.S., Southwestern University, 1978)

The Real Estate Roundtable

Representative Greg Stanton (D-AZ)
House Transportation and Infrastructure Committee
Ranking Member, Subcommittee on Economic Development, Public Buildings, and Emergency Management

Representative Greg Stanton represents Arizona's 4th Congressional District and has served in the U.S. House since 2019. On the House Transportation and Infrastructure Committee, he is the ranking member of the Subcommittee on Economic Development, Public Buildings, and Emergency Management, which oversees federal real estate, including federal leasing and public buildings, as well as disaster preparedness and response.

Rep. Stanton also serves on the Aviation and Highways and Transit subcommittees, the House Foreign Affairs Committee and the House Select Committee on the Chinese Communist Party. His work in Congress has focused on Arizona's water resources and transportation investment. He also co-founded the Congressional Extreme Heat Caucus.

Before entering Congress, Rep. Stanton served as mayor of Phoenix from 2012 to 2018. He secured voter approval for a transportation plan to expand light rail, improve bus service and upgrade city streets. His administration also helped secure investments in bioscience and higher education.

Rep. Stanton previously served on the Phoenix City Council and as Arizona's deputy attorney general.

(B.A., Marquette University, 1992. J.D.; University of Michigan Law School, 1995)

The Real Estate Roundtable

Representative Tom Suozzi (D-NY)
Committees: House Ways and Means; Select Committee on the Chinese Communist Party

Co-Chair, Bipartisan Problem Solvers Caucus
Representative Tom Suozzi represents New York's 3rd Congressional District, which includes parts of Long Island and Queens. He first served in the U.S. House from 2017 to January 2023, returned after winning a special election in February 2024, and won reelection in November 2026.

Rep. Suozzi serves on the House Ways and Means Committee and its Subcommittees on Tax and Oversight. He also serves on the House Select Committee on the Chinese Communist Party. As co-chair of the bipartisan Problem Solvers Caucus and the Congressional SALT Caucus, he has worked across party lines and advocated for expanding the federal deduction for state and local taxes.

Before joining Congress, Rep. Suozzi served as mayor of his hometown of Glen Cove from 1994 to 2001 and as Nassau County executive from 2002 to 2009. He later worked as a senior advisor at Lazard and as of counsel at Harris Beach. Earlier in his career, he was a litigator at Shearman & Sterling, a federal court law clerk, and an auditor at Arthur Andersen.

(B.S., Boston College; J.D., Fordham University)

The Real Estate Roundtable

Representative Beth Van Duyne (R-TX)
Committees: Ways and Means; Small Business
Chairman, Economic Growth, Tax, and Capital Access Subcommittee

Representative Beth Van Duyne represents Texas' 24th Congressional District, including communities in the Dallas-Fort Worth region. She was first elected to the House in 2020.

Rep. Van Duyne serves on the House Ways and Means Committee and its Subcommittees on Tax, Trade, Oversight, and Work and Welfare. She also serves on the House Small Business Committee, where she chairs the Subcommittee on Economic Growth, Tax, and Capital Access and serves on the Subcommittee on Oversight, Investigations, and Regulations.

Her additional leadership roles include Chairman of the Republican Study Committee's Budget and Spending Task Force, Co-Chair of the Congressional Franchise Caucus and Co-Founder and Co-Chair of the Congressional Creators Caucus. She also founded the Congressional Mayors Caucus.

Before entering Congress, Rep. Van Duyne served as Regional Administrator for the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development's Southwest Region. Appointed in 2017, she oversaw programs in Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas, including work on Opportunity Zones and disaster recovery following Hurricane Harvey.

Rep. Van Duyne was the first woman elected Mayor of Irving, serving from 2011 to 2017 after service on the Irving City Council from 2004 to 2010. Her private-sector experience includes business consulting and work with startups, private companies and Fortune 500 corporations.

(B.A., Cornell University)